WELCOME TO MY WORLD

As an intuitive artist, visionary crafter and herbalist, I have a passion for infusing healing and plant magic into handcrafted, all-natural treasures. From magic aromatherapy candles to herb-infused lip balms and groovy art prints, each creation embodies the essence of nature.

My mission is simple- to invite the healing vibrations of nature into homes and self-care rituals, fostering a harmonious union of art, magic, and wellness.

ARTISANAL MAGIC FROM THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST

At Rachel Beyer Artist Apothecary, each product is meticulously handcrafted with care and dedication to ensure exceptional quality. From sourcing premium ingredients to hands-on production in my Portland studio, every item reflects our commitment to artisanal excellence and the magic of nature-infused living.

WHAT MAKES MY PRODUCTS UNIQUE?

My hands-on approach extends to cultivating ingredients in my own backyard and community garden. Every botanical and herb is nurtured, harvested, and infused with my personal touch before being incorporated into my artisanal creations.

GIVING BACK
